Rusland Chapel, Vale of Rusland
by Miss Skelton of Rayrigg Hall, c.1843

There is a little chapel on a hill,
The mountain breezes sing around the shrine,
The wild wind sweeps the narrow aisle at will,
Through lattice panes at will the sunbeams shine.
No shrouding curtain sheds a solemn gloom –
No glowing pane is rich with varied dyes;
O'er noble rest is rear'd no marble tomb,
Where dust and kindred dust in slumber lies.
Oh, little wayside chapel! rude and lone Thou art; yet made more glorious by the might
Of faith! whose power can raise the meanest stone
Into an altar of celestial light,
Making this humble chapel on the hill
A temple God himself will not disdain to fill.
